The College4Kids program offers learning experiences designed to actively engage students in hands-on learning. Courses have a high adult to student ratio and provide students with opportunities to learn and have fun at the same time. In order for all participants to benefit from the program, each student and their parent or legal guardian must sign a Code of Conduct form agreeing to the expectations for behavior during the Academy.

Students are expected to observe the following Code of Conduct while enrolled as an Academy student:

1. To treat fellow students, PVCC faculty and staff with respect at all times. This includes the following:
   - respectful listening during presentations
   - participation during hands-on activities
   - avoiding behavior that is distracting to others during class time
   - following direction from PVCC staff as necessary to ensure a safe and enjoyable experience by all

2. To avoid the following during hours of the Academy, including breaks:
   - smoking
   - chewing gum
   - rough-housing
   - using swear words

3. To avoid the following except for limited use as permitted during breaks:
   - use of cell phones
   - video/electronic games

Consequences of breaking these rules are (1) a warning from an Instructor (2) a phone call to the parent/guardian (3) being asked to leave the program without a refund.
