

DISTANCE LEARNING ANNUAL REPORT

2018-2019

OVERVIEW

In 2018-2019, distance learning courses encompassed 19% of Piedmont Virginia Community College's (PVCC) total course enrollment. This report provides information regarding distance learning enrollment, headcount, and overall course success. A distance learning course is defined as a course designated with a "Virtual" or "Virtual RT." Courses with a "Virtual" distinction are completed online, without having to be present on campus for classes. A "Virtual RT" course is completed online but have scheduled live lecture broadcasts which students watch online. In total of 2,862 students enrolled in distance learning courses. Of the students enrolled in distance learning courses, 32% took all their coursework at a distance in the 2018-2019 academic year. Distance learning courses resulted in an adjusted completion¹ rate of 85% in the 2018-2019 academic year.

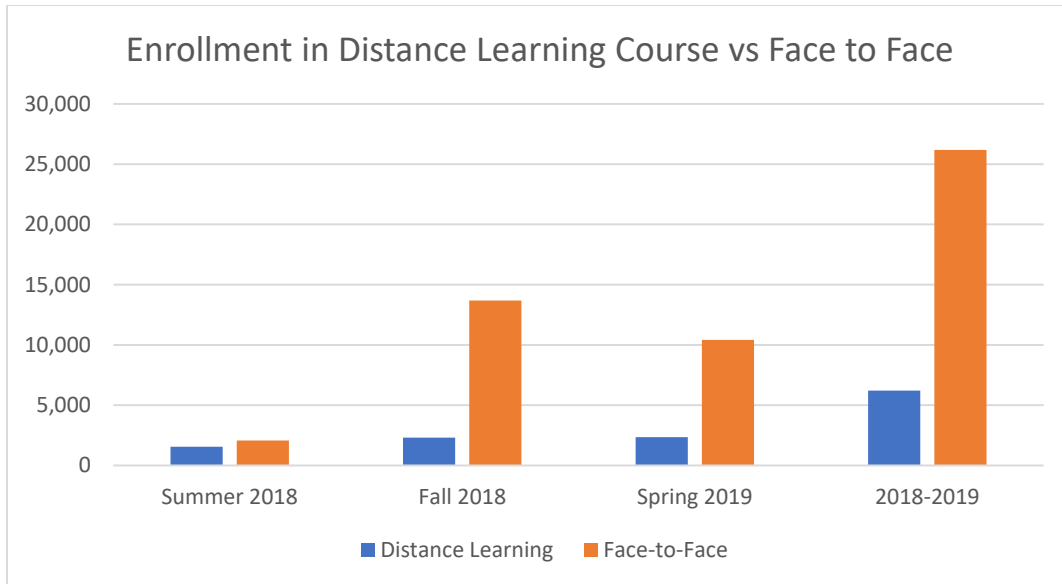

ENROLLMENTS AND FTE GENERATED BY TERM

There were 6,210 enrollments in distance learning courses 2018-2019 academic year. In Summer 2018, PVCC students enrolled in 1,554 distance learning courses compared to 2,310 in Fall 2018 and 2,346 in Spring 2019. In total, distance learning courses generated 568.3 full-time equivalency (FTE) in the 2018-2019 academic year.

UNDUPLICATED HEADCOUNT AND NUMBER OF COMPLETELY DISTANCE STUDENTS

In 2018-2019, 2,862 students enrolled in distance learning courses. Thirty-two percent (n=921) of those students were enrolled in only distance learning courses. Summer 2018 had the highest percentage (68%) of distance learning students who took all their courses at a distance (Table 2).

Table 2. Unduplicated headcount in distance learning courses by term and number of students who took all courses at a distance.

	Unduplicated Headcount of Students Enrolled in Distance Learning Courses	Number and Percent of students who took all courses at a distance
		n	%
Summer 2018	1,029	703	68%
Fall 2018	1,465	511	35%
Spring 2019	1,499	555	37%
2018-2019*	2,862	921	32%

*Unduplicated across terms, enrolled in distance courses in all terms

COURSE SUCCESS AND OFFERING

Students were generally successful in distance learning courses with an adjusted completion rate of 85% in 2018-2019. The adjusted completion rate of PVCC's face-to-face courses was 87%. PVCC offered one hundred fifty-five distance learning courses in the 2018-2019 academic year. The Threshold of acceptability is a 66% pass rate, and the goal is a 75% pass rate. Distance learning courses exceed this standard.
