

2022-2023 Independent Number In College

Your financial aid application was selected by the U.S. Department of Education to undergo a process called verification. You must complete, sign, and submit this form listing the name and age of each of your household members that will be enrolled at least half-time in a college degree, diploma, or certificate program this year. You must also include the college name and their enrollment level. The form must be submitted to the Financial Aid Office to continue the review process and determine your eligibility for federal student aid.

Household Information

List the people in your household that will be attending college at an eligible postsecondary institution any time between July 1, 2022 and June 30, 2023, and will be enrolled in a degree, diploma, or certificate program. Household members include the following:

- Yourself
- Your spouse.
- Your children if you will provide more than half of their support from July 1, 2022 through June 30, 2023, or if the children would be required to provide parental information if they were completing a 2022-2023 federal financial aid application. Include children who meet either of these descriptions, even if they do not live with you.
- Other people if they now live with you and you provide more than half of their support and will continue to provide more than half of their support through June 30, 2023.

In the spaces below you should only provide information for household members that will be attending college at an eligible postsecondary institution during the time period describe above. Note: We may require additional documentation if we have reason to believe that the information provided below is inaccurate.
