Name: _____

PVCC ID#: _____

VCCS email: _____

Cell number: _____

Courses/Professors: Identify your professor for each course, and include their email address and office hours. This information can be found on your syllabus.

Ex. “Professor Jane Doe, PSY230. jdoe@pvcc.edu, office hours: Tu/Th 11-12pm”

Goals: What are your goals this semester for each class? You may want to consider not only the grade you’d like to earn, but what else you could gain from the class.

Ex. “Study earlier for exams by making flashcards after each unit” or “Stop procrastinating essays by scheduling Writing Center appointments early”

Challenges: What challenges are you facing this semester so far? These can be academic, personal, or other types of challenges.

Ex. "My boss is not as flexible as I thought she'd be this semester. I don't have as much time during the week to do my schoolwork"

Strategies/Resources: What specific strategies or resources will you use to succeed in each class this semester? Be as specific as possible. If you already have tutoring or coaching appointments set up, please let me know that!

Ex. "I plan to visit the Writing Center to help me with my first essay in ENG111. The essay is due 6/15 so I will make the appointment on 6/5."

Follow Up/Next Steps: Reminder that you will need to make an appointment with your student success advisor for the month of June or July. You will make appointments through myPVCC, Student Navigate app or call (434) 961-6581. In this section, write down your appointment day and time and let me know if you have any questions or share any concerns you have at this point so that we can address them at our student success meeting.
